have been established by the carrier and are available to the shipper, on request. The property, described above, is in apparent good order, except as noted (contents and condition of contents of packages unknown), marked, consigned and destined as indicated above, which said carrier (the word carrier being understood throughout this contract as meaning any person or corporation in possession of property under the contract) agrees to carry to its usual place of delivery at said destination, if on its on route or otherwise to deliver to another carrier on the route to said destination. It is mutually agreed, as to each carrier of all or any of said property over all or any portion of said route to destination and as to each party at any time interested in all or any of said property, that every service to be performed hereunder shall be subject to all the terms and conditions in the governing classification of the date of shipment, including National Motor Freight Classification in affect. Shipper hereby certifies that he is familiar with all the terms and conditions of the said bill of lading and the said terms and conditions are hereby agreed to by the shipper and accepted for himself and his assigns.
